

As You Like It

Rehearsals are gathering pace now, ready for the summer show, and Fergus is displaying endless amounts of patience in getting confessed non-singers to sound tuneful in his fantastic new arrangements of the songs.

So now's the time where we are looking for volunteers to help with front of house, etc. If you have a burning desire to sell tickets and light refreshments let us know. Also, it would be useful to have some first aiders on site. YSP members get concession rate on tickets (available from York Theatre Royal shortly, or from committee members), but those who help out get in absolutely free!!

We're also putting out a request for help with props. If you can provide any of the following, could you contact Jeremy on j.e.muldowney@dsl.pipex.com

1. Table and chairs for rest area for cast behind audience.
2. Deck chairs and recliner (4).
3. Binoculars.
4. Table and chairs for Duke et al (elegant?)
5. Tablecloth (white) plus glasses, cutlery and napkins, wine bottles
6. Magazines and holiday novels.
7. Wedding magazines.
8. Empty Whisky bottle
9. Bucket with seed (to feed hens).
10. Picnic basket.
11. A bloody napkin.
12. Rattles, whistles, kazoos, streamers, ribbons etc. to celebrate wedding.
13. Power drill in box.
14. Sling for Orlando's arm.
15. Travelling bag with Australia on it.
16. Trays with champagne bottles and glasses.

Readathon

As you will hopefully all know by now, we changed the date of the Shakespeare Marathon to the 27th-28th June, and there has been a slight change to the running order. There's still time to get involved, so let me know if you'd like to read in any particular slot - sfmitcham@yahoo.co.uk or 07796 098916.

Time	Co-ordinator	Play
Friday 18.00 to 21.00	Janet Looker	Timon of Athens
Friday 21.00 to 24.00	Brian and Anna Sharp	Macbeth
Saturday 00.00 to 03.00	Julia Atkinson	Julius Caesar
Saturday 03.00 to 06.00	Sally Mitcham	Much Ado About Nothing
Saturday 06.00 to 09.00	Raymond Baggaley	Richard II
Saturday 09.00 to 12.00	Jeremy Muldowney	Richard III
Saturday 12.00 to 15.00	Al and Jen Carr	Taming of the Shrew
Saturday 15.00 to 18.00	Cecily Boys	Hamlet